Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or the demanding party to contest the claim.

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) if a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

ATTACHMENT "A" TO SUBPOENA OF SUN MICROSYSTEMS, INC.

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 34, and 45, you are requested to produce the following documents:

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Sun Microsystems, Inc. should respond to each and every request separately and fully unless it is objected to, in which event the reason for all objections shall be specifically and separately stated.

2. In producing documents, provide all documents known or available to you, whether such documents or things are within the direct possession, custody, or control of Sun Microsystems, Inc., or any parent, subsidiary, or affiliated corporation, or any present or former employees, agents, officers, directors, representatives, contractors, consultants, or attorneys.

3. Electronic documents must be produced in an intelligible format together with a description of the system from which it was derived sufficient to permit rendering of the materials intelligible.

4. If any document or thing is withheld under a claim of privilege, furnish a list signed by the person supervising Sun's response identifying each such document by production number together with the following information:

- a. The date of such document or thing;
- b. The place at which such document or thing was created and the medium involved;
- c. The identity of each person who has custody or control of the document or thing;

- d. The name, title, position, and contact information of every recipient of the original or any copy of the document or thing;
- e. The number of pages in any document and any attachments, or a full and complete description of any thing;
- f. The identity of each person involved, together with his or her job title at the time of creation of the document or thing;
- g. The subject matter of the document or thing;
- h. The basis on which the privilege is claimed; and
- i. Whether any non-privileged matter is contained within the document or thing;
- j. The precise location of any redactions if the document or thing is redacted;

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of these requests, the following terms shall have the meaning set forth below.

- 1. The term “person” means any individual, firm, partnership, incorporated or unincorporated association, or any other legal or commercial entity.
- 2. The term “document[s]” shall refer broadly to all categories of tangible and intangible information envisioned by Rule 34(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, without limitation as to the type of document (whether copy or original), and shall include without limitation any writings or tangible objects produced or reproduced mechanically, electronically, photographically, or chemically. “Document[s]” shall further be defined to include things. No material may be withheld on the ground that it is not a “document.”
- 3. The terms “refer,” “referring,” “relate,” or “relating” as used herein, include, but are not limited to, the following meanings: bearing upon, concerning, constituting, discussing, describing, evidencing, identifying, concerning, mentioning, in connection with, pertaining to, respecting, regarding, responding to, or in any way factually or logically relevant to the matter described in the request.

4. The “Finjan patents in suit” refers to U.S. Patent Nos. 6,092,194, 6,804,780, and 7,058,822.

5. The term “Finjan” means Finjan Software, Ltd., as well as any and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, assigns, parent corporations, and affiliates thereof, and all past or present directors, officers, agents, employees, consultants, representatives, and others acting for or on any or all of their behalves.

6. The term “Sun” means Sun Microsystems, Inc., as well as any and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, assigns, parent corporations, and affiliates thereof, and all past or present directors, officers, agents, employees, consultants, representatives, and others acting for or on any or all of their behalves.
